GUIDED TOUR TO SHAPING A HEAT RESILIENT CITY EXHIBITION

Are you feeling the heat in Singapore?

With climate change, temperatures are on the rise worldwide and our sunny island is feeling the burn. Especially with limited land space, relevant land-use planners need to innovate and implement new technologies into our urban space!

Let's have a chat and learn how key players – be it government agencies or private actors– are teaming up to tackle the sizzling challenge of extreme heat in our little red dot with Urban Redevelopment Authority (URA)!

19th January 2024, Friday

Meeting time: 11:50am
Guided tour: 12 - 1pm

Urban Redevelopment Authority
45 Maxwell Road The URA
Centre, Level 1 (near security counter) Singapore, 069118

Open to all NUS staff and students!
