Do you want to learn how impactful change can begin with a small step?

RVRC Symposium 2024 celebrates how learning at the college transcends the confines of the classroom and the immediacy of the present, towards a contribution to the future of the society and the environment. It features how the RVRC living-learning experience strives to enable students to build a shared future that is more sustainable and equitable.

Interact & Engage | Network & Collaborate | Reflect & Learn
