

Submissions Open for Good Natured: Conservation Optimism Short Film Festival 2024 ||
Register by 10 May
19 Apr 2024 || TO NUS Students

Have you been inspired by someone taking action for nature in your community? Have you witnessed some conservation successes or learned from conservation failures?

Conservation Optimism is inviting filmmakers to send in short films featuring stories of hope from around the globe. 🎬 📺 📱 🌍 Selected films will be screened at its film festival on 6 July at the Oxford Museum of Natural History.

Email your submission to filmfestival@conservationoptimism.org stating your current course of study for a fee waiver password. Submissions will close on 10 May 2024.

Visit the Film Free page for more information on the festival and submission process.
