What does risk sound like?

In this one-of-a-kind concert by IPUR and YST Conservatory of Music, five student musicians transform real-world risks – mental health, ageing, heat, plastic pollution and coastal protection – into original musical interpretations performed on the piano, flute, guzheng, erhu and other instruments.

Don't miss this unique opportunity to hear risk reimagined as resonance!

 28 October (Tuesday)

 5pm to 6pm
