

Don't miss this talk by Rhett Ayers Butler, founder of environmental science news platform Mongabay || 18 Nov

12 Nov 2025 || TO NUS Community

Sent on behalf of NUS Centre for Nature-based Climate Solutions \(CNCS\)

Did you know that a dramatic experience in a rainforest in Malaysian Borneo played a role in inspiring Rhett Ayers Butler to found his conservation and environmental science news platform, Mongabay? – Hear directly from the award-winning American journalist as he shares communication lessons from 25 years of reporting from nature's frontlines!

Sign up the talk and fireside chat here.

 Tue, 18 Nov 2025

 10.30am – 12pm

 NUS UHall Auditorium

Talk & Fireside Chat

How Stories Shape the Planet: What I've learned about communicating science from 25 years of Mongabay

18 Nov, 2025

10.30AM–12PM

NUS University Hall Auditorium

Register
here:

Rhett Ayers Butler is the Founder and CEO of Mongabay, a non-profit news organization that covers issues at the intersection of people and nature via a network of about 1,000 journalists in more than 80 countries. Beyond Mongabay, Rhett has advised a range of organizations and institutions, while his writing and photography have appeared in hundreds of publications.

He will be giving a wide-ranging talk on how nature reporting can bridge science, society, and hope. All are welcome!

Centre for Nature-based Climate Solutions
Faculty of Science

Nature for Climate for You