

From plate to purpose: Join the launch of a new series which aim to turn sustainability into action || 3 March

25 Feb 2026 || TO NUS Community

If you care about Green living, Leadership & learning, Open governance and Well-being, come be part of the inaugural launch of G.L.O.W!

The new flagship series by NUS BIZAlum and the Centre for Governance and Sustainability (CGS) brings together alumni, industry and academia to turn sustainability into real action.

The series will kick off with a session on what's on our plate, featuring –

- Prof Lawrence Loh, director of CGS
- Florence Leong, director of KosmodeHealth Singapore (which repurposes waste into functional health ingredients)
- Kenny Ng, Chief Farmer from The Local Farm (which builds appreciation for local produce and sustainable farming).

Come for the insights and conversations – and leave with ideas you can actually use!

 3 March (Tue)

 5 - 8pm

 NUS Business School

 Click here to register

FROM PLATE TO PURPOSE

G.L.O.W.
A flagship series by NUS BIZAlum and Centre for Governance and Sustainability

Official Launch
3 March 2026, 5 - 8 PM | NUS Business School

Launching a new platform uniting alumni, industry and academia to translate sustainability into tangible action - starting with what's on our plate.

SCAN QR CODE TO BE PART OF THE FOUNDING MOMENT

Green Living | Leadership & Learning | Open Governance | Well-being

Discover how green innovations move from Vision to Impact!

Prof Lawrence Loh
Director, Centre for Governance and Sustainability (CGS)
NUS Business School
NUS BBA (Hons) '85

Florence Leong
Co-Founder / Director, KosmodeHealth Singapore
NUS BBA '88

Kenny Ng
Founder & Chief Farmer, The Local Farm
NUS BSc (Hons) RE '99

NUS NUS BIZAlum NUS Centre for Governance and Sustainability NUS Business School