

Catch the IARU Biodiversity Photo Contest at NUS || till 22 May

12 March 2026 || TO NUS Community

The IARU (International Alliance of Research Universities) Biodiversity Photo Contest is now at NUS!

Discover 10 winning entries chosen from over 260 submissions – capturing the surprising biodiversity around IARU university campuses, paired with the photographers' reflections and stories behind each shot. The photographs are being showcased across the IARU network worldwide.

Drop by the NUS Central Library to view the exhibition – and find out which winning photos were taken right here at NUS!

The exhibition moves to Medicine+Science Library next month, where a biodiversity-themed talk series by NUS Libraries will be held. Look out for more details from NUS Libraries in your email inbox!
