Got an innovative idea to protect lives in a warming world?

Team up with two to five students and bring your solution to the Asian Climate-SDG Technology Innovation Hackathon for Next-generation (ACTION): Safeguarding Human Health in the Climate Crisis.

Organised by Tsinghua University, The University of Hong Kong, NUS and Asian Universities Alliance, this hackathon is your chance to turn climate ideas into real-world impact. Top teams may have the chance to travel to a roadshow in Hong Kong or even COP31 in Antalya, Türkiye.

 Those interested may register here by 30 June 2026

For more information on the hackathon including submission requirements and timeline, visit the event website.

You are encouraged to join a virtual information session this Thursday (7 May) from 1 - 1:50 pm.
