Sent on behalf of MSc (Environmental Management) (MEM) programme

The Master of Science (Environmental Management) (MEM) programme celebrates its 25th anniversary with a special evening featuring a 4-course dinner and the 3rd edition of the Environmental Management Leadership Lecture (EMLL).

This year's keynote on Climate Leadership in an Era of Global Fragmentation will be delivered by Ms Jessica Cheam, Founder and CEO of Eco-Business, followed by a Q&A session moderated by Ms Melissa Low, Head of the NUS Sustainability Academy. Mr Tony Oposa, an environmental law and policy consultant from the Philippines, will be the special guest at the dinner.

There will also be alumni-led seminars in the afternoon. Hear from distinguished alumni of the MEM program as they share industry perspectives and practical insights from across the sustainability sector.

Early-bird tickets on sale until 7 Oct
Regular tickets on sale until 14 Oct or when sold out
